

JOB OUTLOOK is good for Paula Johnson, 918 Acacia St., who graduated in June from Torrance High School. Miss Johnston types 60-65 words per minute and takes dictation at 110-110 words per minute. Mrs.

Rita Baglio, youth services supervisor, takes Miss Johnson's application in the Torrance office of the state employment service.

2,000 HS Graduates Given Job-Finding Help Here

"G-Day," a special job-finding day for graduates, recently counseled some 2,000 high school graduates in Torrance.

Murray Love, manager of the Torrance office, California State Employment Service, 1220 Engracia, explained the "G" in G-Day stands for graduates.

Local high schools, employers, community groups and civic officials joined with the State agency to bring together the high school graduate and employers with job openings. Participating employers were given facilities for interviewing the graduates on G-Day, Love pointed out.

These young people bring to a job the many employment assets of youth — trainability, enthusiasm and adaptability, he said. In addition many of these young men and women are already trained and qualified to step into responsible jobs; Others show natural abilities or have begun to develop skills on after-school and summer jobs, which are readily adaptable for trainee and other jobs for beginners.

Love stated the program is being coordinated by Mrs. Rita Baglio, youth services supervisor. Employers may contact Mrs. Baglio at FA 8-2611 to place an advance order, make a reservation to recruit G-Day applicants, or to obtain further information.

Mrs. Baglio stated many of our qualified graduates have been lost to local employers because of recruitment by out-of-area employers. These young people travel distances to jobs because they are unaware of local area openings. It was the purpose of "G-Day" to bring together the employer and the June graduate.

Graduates who applied were asked to bring pertinent information with them which they will need to fill out applications for various employers. It was also suggested they bring any certificates of proficiency they may have such as typing, shorthand, etc. If they have specialized in shop work they were requested to give information on types and makes of machinery used, or how far they have progressed.

Schools participating in this program are, Gardena, Narbonne, Torrance, North, South, West, Redondo, Aviation, Mira Costa, Serra, Bishop Montgomery and Palos Verdes High Schools.

City Officially Takes Over Moneta Water Company

The Moneta Water Company has been officially transferred to the City of Torrance. This transfer is the end result of long negotiations between the city of Torrance and that company. The transfer was officially made by L. F. Stephenson, the company's general manager and secretary, to Councilman Nickolas O. Dralle, who has long spearheaded this project.

The Moneta Water Co. was incorporated in 1916 and has been in operation since that time. The territory served by the company covers an area in North Torrance approximately two miles long and one mile wide and includes about 1,900 customers.

This area is generally described by being bounded on the north by Artesia Blvd., on the south by 190th St., on the east by Vermont Ave. and on the west by Crenshaw Blvd. Although a large portion of this service area is within the confines of the city of Torrance, about one-half of the area is in the city of Los Angeles, the city of Gardena and an unincorporated part of Los Angeles County.

Moneta Water Company charges approximately the same rates as does the Torrance Municipal Water Department.

The cost to the city of this transaction is $98,767.50, of which $86,267.50 is Moneta's price and $12,500 will be paid to the county in settlement of a tax claim against the company.

U.S. 'Greatest' Telephone Salesman to Hook Up Here

Jack Schwartz, called America's "greatest telephone salesman," will present his world famous telephone sales clinic at a special meeting of the South Bay Toastmasters Club on Wednesday evening, June 26, at the Redondo Beach Elks Club.

Schwartz will give actual demonstrations of how to sell and service by telephone. Arrangements have been made with General Telephone Company to provide special loud speaker equipment to permit the audience to hear both ends of the conversation.

This special program has been planned for Toastmasters clubs in the South Bay area. However, a limited number of reservations are available to the general public. The only cost for attendees is $2.50 per person for dinner. Reservations must be made in advance by sending a check payable to South Bay Toastmasters Club to Don Payne, 4529 Carmelynn St.

For additional information call Payne at FR 1-2566 or Bob Dreizler at FR 5-7895.

Royalweve's "Marquis" carpeting comes clean in 10 seconds...

EVEN IF HER MAJESTY SPILLS!

When your little monarch holds court in the living room, you'll bestow a royal blessing on "Marquis" for being so breezily easy to care for. Imagine! Carpeting so elegantly luxurious you're the envy of your friends... so practical they know you're a dream of a housekeeper... and so reasonably priced, your husband can't get over it!

The subtlety of Marquis' random tone-on-tone textured pattern is a versatile complement to any decor—perfect with warm maple styling or a rich undercolor for the clean-lined, contemporary look. Its deep, dense 100% DuPont continuous filament nylon face yarn construction means really rugged wear, goodbye to mildew, moths, and dirt—nothing clings to these miracle fibers. Soil disappears in seconds with a damp sponge and ordinary detergent.

Add to this Royalweve's exclusive, vulcanized "Cushion-Weld" backing that adds stability and even longer, richer life... the Good Housekeeping Institute's Consumer's Guaranty Seal... and an exciting galaxy of 14 harmonizing decorator colors, and you can see why Royalweve's "Marquis" makes your home fit for a queen.
